

Marta Kepka is an artist working in central NJ. Marta plays conceptually with social complexities through her constructed “environments”. Filtering through a feminist lens, the artist dismisses oppositional binaries by embracing the ideas of pure difference and material agency. Her cross-disciplinary interests led her to earn her BFA alongside a Psychology minor and Women’s Studies collateral program. She undertook her MFA at Montclair State University and has received several awards for her work which have been exhibited in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York and the United Kingdom. In addition to maintaining an active studio practice, Marta also provides independent consulting to artists. Her work and writing can be found at www.martakepka.com .
